DAYTON, Ohio, July 17, 1967 --- The University of Dayton is offering its seventh annual workshop on "Business Systems and Data Processing," a specially designed program for business education teachers, from July 10 to July 28, 1967. The three week program is an Ohio Cooperative Office Education Qualifying Workshop which is co-sponsored by the Department of Education, State of Ohio. It offers the participants an opportunity to earn 3 semester hours of graduate credit.

The program is designed to familiarize business education teachers and administrators with modern data processing concepts, techniques and equipment. The schedule will include lectures, discussions, demonstrations, field trips and practice sessions, utilizing the University Research Institute equipment facilities.
